Postal Site May Be Set Friday

Selection of a site for a new Andover Postal facility may be made Friday morning at a meeting of regional postal officials, selectmen and town manager.

George Walker, regional director of the postal service said this week, that "we have concluded our thinking on the site selection," and would meet with local officials Friday morning at the Water Treatment Plant meeting room to discuss the matter further.

Walker would give no indication as to what site or sites the postal department had agreed upon, feeling that town officials should be the first to know.

The regional director did say, however, that the Purity Supreme property on Park street is not now in consideration.

Site of a new post office was announced in late fall when the postal service signed a purchase and sales agreement with Sidney P. White for property on Andover street diagonally across from the dairy bar owned by White.

White has been invited to the meeting Friday morning.

Following announcement of the intent of the post office department to close the Main street office and locate all processing facilities at the Andover street site, local boards offered alternatives in an effort to keep the facility in the main downtown area.

Among the sites offered were expansion of the present post office property, the former Grants store in Shawsheen Plaza, Purity Supreme, and another location on Park street.

Last week, Purity Supreme informed the TOWNSMAN, that it was not interested in being a part of the post office consideration, noting that it not only intended to continue as a part of Andover's retail business community but planned to expand its local operation.

Postal authorities have been evaluating the alternatives given by the town as to how the areas meet their needs as to a building to orderly and economically carry out their distribution and processing work.

The original plan to obtain the White land, contained provisions for maintaining window service in the Main street area for sale of stamps parcel post, etc.

Boxes would be contained in the new Andover street location.

Among the objections to the location to the Andover street site have been increased traffic, as well as being built in a residential area.

Should the postal service decide to settle on the Andover street location, rezoning would not be necessary, since it is a federal government facility.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin said Wednesday that he had not been given any advance indication of what the postal authorities had decided.

Traditional Program To Have 10 Classrooms

The fears of many West Elementary School parents were allayed Monday night when the school committee voted to establish up to 10 traditional classrooms there next fall - without displacing any youngsters who want to remain in the contemporary program.

All West parents, however, have been invited to a meeting at the school Monday at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the progress to date on the new program, and implications for the future.

A meeting of the parents of all pupils enrolled in the traditional program will follow at 7:30 p.m. on March 17, also at West Elementary.

The school committee,

following a planning report by the administration Monday,

Garden Club To Replant Elm St.

Elm Street will once again be truly named, through the efforts of the Andover Garden Club and Tree Superintendent James Bamford.

The local gardeners this week initiated a project to replant Elms along the street, a main avenue into Andover, replacing the many Elms lost to Dutch Elm disease over the years.

The project will be carried out with the co-operation of Bamford, who said the Elms would be planted where there is room along the street at present, with further plantings probably following the reconstruction of the road, planned in the near future by the state.

The project by the Andover Garden Club is actually an ongoing one, the group having assisted in the identification and location of Elms earlier this year.

This week the group heard about the Harvard Elm Project, a preservation and conservation effort conducted by interested citizens in the town of Harvard.

Mrs. Anne Phair, chairman of the Harvard project, described the efforts of her group in initiating a campaign to establish an Elm Commission in the community, specifically to preserve the trees and replace those lost

Udall Choice Of Democrats In Andover

Andover Democrats endorsed Morris Udall as their Presidential choice in Tuesday's Presidential Primary, going against the state trend which supported the candidacy of Sen. Henry Jackson.

Udall captured 923 Andover votes as compared to Jackson's 503 in the election which, in view of the weather, saw a fairly good turnout of 4,706 of Andover's 13,866 registered voters.

On the Republican ballot, President Ford was an easy victor in Andover, with 970 votes as compared to 590 for Ronald Reagan, who ignored Massachusetts in his bid for the GOP nomination.

Udall, who led the field of liberals seeking the Democratic nomination, had the support of Congressman Paul Tsongas, who represents Andover and gained strength in such Andover areas as Precincts four and six.

In Precinct six, "The Hill" area, Udall was accorded 258 votes, while Jackson received only 114.

Precinct four, about on a par with total voters with Precinct six, and composed of many of the town's newer residents, Udall polled 213 votes to Jackson's 156.

Jimmy Carter, who captured the New Hampshire endorsement a week ago, placed third in the Andover voting with 362, followed by George C. Wallace with 278 and Fred R. Harris with 247. Others in order of finish in the Presidential race were R. Sargent Shriver, 187; Milton J. Schapp, 165; Birch Bayh, 145; Ellen McCormack, 96; Robert L. Kelleher, four and 45 no preference votes.

For membership on the Republican state committee, former Congressman Paul W. Cronin of Andover was given 56 write-in votes and Fannie Benick of Lawrence received 40 write-ins for state committeewoman for the GOP.

There were 3,017 Democrat ballots cast and 1,689 Republican votes in the primary, in what Town Clerk Elden R. Salter termed an exceptional turnout.

Considering the weather and the usual attention given the Presidential primary, Salter felt the turnout was particularly exceptional in view of many older residents of the community braving the elements to vote.

Tabulation through the computer punch card system used in Andover ran smoothly, with the

Resident Directors Sought By ABC

The Andover A Better Chance (A.B.C.) board of directors are seeking to fill the position of Resident Directors, Women's House. The Residency will become available for occupation in mid-summer with duties commencing Sept. 1. The resident directors are responsible for the management of a seven woman dormitory house. Responsibilities in addition to the house management include supervision of the women's academic high school program; supervision of two live in college tutors, and involvement with the students, their community involvements and the community families serving various A.B.C. functions.

Town Seal Inviting

The Board of Selectmen has given the Bicentennial Committee permission to use the Town Seal, along with the Bicentennial one, on invitations to the May 21 Bicentennial Ball.

The board is traditionally reluctant to allow the seal to be used.

Several Appointed

G. Warren Patterson is the new Planning Board representative to the Historic District Study Commission, replacing Mrs. James Keck.

The Selectmen Monday night also named Patterson as the Planning Board's rep to the Traffic Committee, and appointed Donald J. Mulvey to the Traffic Committee. Mulvey replaces William Banton.

David P. Winfield is special constable for directing at traffic Raytheon's entrances.

School Personnel

Mrs. Adeline Wright, a teacher in Andover schools since September, 1937, will retire at the end of June. She most recently has been a teacher in Loft 2 at Bancroft.

In other personnel action Monday night, the School Committee extended the maternity leave of Mrs. Alice Gosse, a science teacher at East Jr. High, through June, and named two junior high boys' gymnastics coaches. K. Maglio will be at East Jr. High and D. Amundsen at West, through April 9.

School Days 1976-77

The Andover School Committee Monday night approved a 184-day school year for 1976-77.

Four of those days are set aside for snow emergencies, and if they're not used, school will close earlier than the June 23, 1977, scheduled date.

Classes will begin Sept. 9; Christmas vacation will be Dec. 24 to 31; February vacation, Feb. 21 to 25 and April vacation, April 18 to 22.

No Float For Town

The Board of Selectmen has turned down an invitation to enter a float in the May 9 Bicentennial parade.

Why, asked Chairman Milton Greenberg, would the Town of Andover want a float in its own parade?

Various churches, organizations, industries and businesses in the community have also been asked to enter.

Grass Cutting Not So Easy

The telephone company's request to put up three poles on the south side of Lowell St., near Arthur St., has been delayed.

Charles Therrien, 98 Lowell St., told the selectmen Monday night the poles would require guy wires to the edge of his lawn, and the guy wires would give him problems cutting his grass. He suggested they guy to a tree instead.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin agreed to meet with Mass. Electric and Therrien to work out a solution.

Abutter Approves

Considering a request for a joint Mass. Electric - New England Telephone pole on the north side of Center St., the selectmen Monday night asked if there were any abutters present.

Kenneth Hirsch, 9 Marland St., stood up to say he approves.

Hirsch, Chairman Milton Greenberg noted, must be the first abutter in six years to turn up just to say "yes" to such a request.

The selectmen also approved street openings to repair gas mains in front of 92 Argilla Road, 12 Forbes Lane and 5 Porter Road.

Industrial Policy Adopted

A new policy for the Andover Development and Industrial Commission, aimed at protecting the best interests of the town's taxpayers, was adopted by the Board of Selectmen Monday night.

Selectman Edmund J. Sullivan called the policy "positive and advantageous for the town" and it should, he said, protect the town from over-industrialization.

Selectman Chairman Milton Greenberg and John DiOrio had drafted the policy, which lists the commission's goals as 1) to encourage industries with a minimum environmental impact to locate in Andover, with the major purpose of reducing the net tax cost; 2) to assist in maintaining a viable central business district and encouraging the location of commercial establishments therein, and 3) to furnish advice and assistance to existing commercial and industrial entities.

In executing its duties, the commission will comment on proposed plans affecting their areas of interest and act as a sounding board for industry.

By way of implementation, the policy states that the Town Manager, "with the policy direction of the Board of Selectmen", should approve projects on which the commission should be working, so as to avoid duplication with other boards and departments, and set appropriate priorities.

Sullivan keyed his approval on two items: minimum impact and net tax advantage.

He said an example of "impact" was a plating plant which was turned down here because the commission believed it would be detrimental to the town and to the water supply.

The town shall not accept industries which require major capital improvements at a cost to the taxpayer, he said.

Applications Open For Rent Subsidy

Applications for the new rental assistance program to be administered by the Andover Housing Authority will be accepted at the AHA office, 100 Morton St., beginning Wednesday, March 10.

The new program, a federally subsidized plan to assist elderly, low, and very low income families in making rent payments, is known as the Section 8 housing assistance program, authorized by HUD and administered by local housing authorities.

The program will allow 36 individuals and families rent assistance and leave the choice of apartments up to the individual. Persons may even be able to remain in their present residence.

Specific income limits are established for family size to determine eligibility.

An informational meeting was conducted by the AHA last week for property owners to learn the specifics of the program. The program provides owners with guaranteed rent payments and leases.

Cantata Singers In Concert

On Sunday, March 7 at 3 p.m. in the Cochran Chapel, The Cantata Singers and Ensemble will present the 48th Annual Sawyer Foundation Concert.

The Cantata Singers and Ensemble, directed by John Ferris, organist and choirmaster of Memorial Church, Harvard University, are one of the most outstanding interpreters of Baroque vocal and instrumental music.

Michael Steinberg, critic for the Boston Globe, commented on the last concert of the group's final recital of the season. "A lovely end to a distinguished season by what is clearly now one of Boston's strongest and most valuable musical organizations."

The public is cordially invited to the concert and a reception afterwards in the Underwood Room at Phillips Academy. There is no charge for admission.

A priority list of public works improvements was accepted by the Board of Selectmen Monday night - just in case federal Economic Development Administration funds come through.

According to Assistant Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen, Congress and the Ford Administration have reached agreement on a major public works bill geared to areas like Greater Lawrence, where unemployment is above the national average.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin added that many of the projects would be ready to go should funds arrive, with little or no additional engineering preparation.

St. Robert's Takes Title

By Rick Harrison
St. Robert's, stymied for three periods by a good zone defense and suffering through its poorest shooting night of the year, emerged from its shell in the fourth quarter and raced to a 32-19 victory over South Church to win the regular-season championship in the Senior Division of the Andover Church Basketball League.
The triumph was the ninth straight for St. Robert's following a one-point loss on opening night, and the final 9-1 record gave the champs a healthy two-game bulge over the rest of the field in the standings.
In the other regular-season wrapups at the West Junior High gym, St. Augustine A (6-4) needed a last period rally to sink Ballardvale United, 33-26, and Free Church (5-5) handed runner-up St. Augustine B (7-3) a mild 38-17 upset.
John McNamara, a first-year Senior player for St. Robert's, captured the division's individual scoring crown with 126 points. It makes the third straight such title for the lefty, who won the Intermediate point race both in 1973-74 and 1974-75.

St. Robert's, 32-19
Scott Hughes of upset-minded South and Brian Rockwell of St. Robert's traded opening period buckets, leaving the score at 2-2 after one stanza.
Bob Stammers fired through three baskets and Tracy Hughes one in the second session, boosting South to a 10-7 halftime bulge as McNamara led the answering fire with four points.
St. Robert's connected on just 2-of-22 fieldgoal attempts over the South zone.
St. Robert's started to show some life in the third quarter, as Scott Praetz notched four points and John McNamara three, boosting the champs into a 14-12 lead as only John Sagaser connected for South.
The winners finally broke loose to outscore pesky South 18-7 in the finale. McNamara canned eight points and Brian Rockwell six to guide the surge, while Stammers and Sagaser combined for all seven South tallies.

John McNamara emerged as game-high scorer once again, sealing double figures for the tenth consecutive time this season with 15 markers.
Brian Rockwell flipped through 8 points, Scott Praetz 7 and Dan Saunders swished a pair of last period free throws.
The remainder of the youthful St. Robert's crew, most of whom will be back again next year, are Steve Leitch, Frank Branco, Tom Daley, Rich Marciano and Gregg Praetz.
Top guns for South were Bob Stammers with 10 points, John Sagaser 5, Scott Hughes 2 and Tracy Hughes 2 points.
Bill Calthorpe and Brian Dellis also played well for South, which closed the year a deceptive 2-8 including several losses by very slim margins.
St. Robert's led South in floor connections 12-8, and the champs hit 8-of-22 foul shots including 5-of-9 by McNamara. South converted 3-of-6 charities.
After its horrendous shooting average in the opening three periods, St. Robert's recovered to pocket 7-of-15 in the last frame. However, for the entire game the champs were a woeful 12-for-54 (22 percent) from the floor.

South committed 15 personal fouls and St. Robert's 12 in the game.
St. Augustine A, 33-26
Ballardvale United played excellent basketball for three quarters minus high-scoring Jeff Roy, leading favored St.

Augustine A 24-21 entering the final period, but superb foul shooting by the winners and a suddenly cold BU team turned things around over the last seven minutes.
St. Augustine inched to a 10-8 lead after one quarter and a 20-15 advantage by intermission, but Jay McLeod ignited a third period United surge that gave BU its 24-21 advantage.

St. Augustine B may have been somewhat down in the dumps after watching St. Robert's destroy any hopes for a co-championship just an hour before, but that takes nothing away from the fine performance of Free in its 38-17 romp.

Mike Travis and Jeff Buck put this one out of sight early, pooling talents for 10 first quarter markers as Free raced to a 10-1 lead.

Travis, Buck, Mike King and Doug Awley continued to pour it on during the second canto, as Free boosted its cushion to 22-3 by halftime.

The rivals traded buckets over the last two periods, with the winners enjoying slim 8-7 advantages both times.

Free spread the wealth around and placed seven youngsters in the scoring column, led by two-way standout Mike Travis with 14 points and some key defensive plays.

Jeff buck also cracked double digits with 10 points, while Gary Lindstrom and Mike King popped in 4 markers apiece.

Rounding out the well-balanced assault with single buckets were Doug Awley, Alan Patterson and Phil Kirkland.

Keith Williams, Glen Wade and Doug Kirkland were other Free stalwarts.

St. Augustine B received some second-half sharpshooting from Dan Caselden, who closed with 10 points, while Tom Walsh dunked 4 markers and John Perowski added 3.

Frank Robinson and John Walsh also played well for the second place club.

The two teams played up-and-down basketball with only 11 fouls between them. Free didn't sink a charity in the game, while the losers hit three.

PACKING STORA

St. Augustine's Titlists Among Intermediates

By Rick Harrison

St. Augustine B swept to its ninth straight victory without a loss, winning the Intermediate Division championship of the Andover Church Basketball League following a 32-17 conquest of St. Robert's C on the final night of regular-season play last Monday at the East Junior High gym.

The triumph enabled the undefeated leaders to edge runner-up St. Augustine A by a single game, as that club nipped St. Robert's A 26-23 in its finale to close at 8-1 overall.

Christ Church, winning six of its final seven starts, pulled into a third-place deadlock with St. Augustine D after dumping that team 22-18 this week.

Suddenly-potent St. Augustine C gave favored St. Robert's B a run for its money in the fourth quarter, but the rally fell short as St. Robert's secured a winning season with a 28-25 triumph.

Ballardvale United, another quintet that finished strongly the latter half of the year, battled from behind the fourth period to register a tough 15-11 victory over spunky South Church.

St. Augustine B, 32-17

St. Augustine B (9-0) remained invincible, turning a close game into an easy one with a 12-2 scoring bulge in the second quarter. Big Jack Horan was the key man, as he has been all year, with 10 points in that pivotal stanza.

The outburst enabled the champs to assume a 20-8 halftime bulge, and they were never threatened thereafter.

Horan was game-high marksman with 12 points, while Bill Caselden netted 8, Pete Walsh 4 and Mark Paradis 4 to guide the victors. Mark Perkowski stuffed a first quarter bucket and Tim Madden added a fourth period fieldgoal for the B-team.

Larry Torrisi and Jay Madden complete the cast of champions, while Tom Landry is the St. Augustine B coach.

The principal answering fire for St. Robert's C came from Scott Nottle with 6 points, Mike Damphousse 5, Tony Romano 5 and Marty Melia swished a third quarter free throw.

Other standouts in a losing cause were Tom O'Brien, Gonzalo Cabral, Bob French and Ted Morris.

St. Augustine A, 26-23

St. Augustine A, which missed out on the crown because of a 28-22 setback to St. Augustine B, led St. Robert's A by slim 6-4, 14-10 and 19-12 margins before fighting back a last session rally by the losers.

Ted Kelley sparked the A-team charge once again, sharing game-high point honors with 10. Chipping in 4 apiece were Mike White, Tim Corkery and Tom Galvin.

Rounding out the offense with solo baskets were Dick Kelley and Pete Scanlon, while Bill Coughlin and Mark Sullivan were defensive stalwarts.

Bob Leitch paced the answering fire for St. Robert's A, stuffing 10 points including 5 during the last-ditch comeback bid.

Frank Byrne and Phil Farr pocketed 6 apiece, Ken Saliba hooped one foul shot, and excellent floor games were contributed by Pete Byrne, Kevin Byrne and Barry Lemieux.

Christ Church, 22-18

Leading by a tenuous 6-4 margin at halftime, Christ Church broke things open in the third canto behind the sharpshooting of Mark Rogers and Russ Lewis. That pair combined for 10 markers as CC increased its lead to 16-6.

Dave Fluet and Don Green ignited a 12-6 last period run by St. Augustine D, but the hole was too deep to escape from and CC earned its share of third place after an 0-2 start.

Three hoopsters did all the offensive damage for Christ Church. Mark Frost, who pumped through all 6 CC tallies in the last quarter, joined Russ Lewis with 8 points apiece. Mark Rogers added 6, all in period three.

Also playing vital roles for CC were Dave Menard, John Rogers and Tim Stansfield.

Dave Fluet dunked 8 points for St. Augustine D, E.J. Perry and Don Green tossed in 4 each, and Pat Beaudine swished a brace of charities.

Ernie Costello, Ed L'Italien and Brian Beckerman were other leaders.

St. Robert's B, 28-25

St. Robert's B, having struggled the past few weeks, led 11-6 at halftime and then followed the eagle-eye shooting of Dan Lindsey and Dick Danner to a seemingly-secure 23-13 advantage entering the final quarter.

However, St. Augustine C had other ideas and closed the gap behind Steve Farrington, Kevin Donnelly and Paul Kaminski before time ran out.

Danner paced all scorers in the game with 12 markers, Lindsay notched 9, Cameron 4 and Paul Tassanari 3 points for St.

Robert's.

Countering for St. Augustine C were double figure men Kevin Donnelly, with 11, and Steve Farrington who canned 10. Paul Kaminski delivered 4 points, while Glen Markey and John Madden also played fine games.

The contest was decided at the foul line. St. Augustine C held a 12-11 edge in fieldgoals, but St. Robert's B hit 6-of-12 free throws to just 1-of-5 for the vanquished.

Ballardvale, 15-11

Defense was the watchword in this contest, as BU inched to a 4-2 opening stanza spread on buckets by Gary Forbes and Paul Thoday.

However, South tied it 4-4 at halftime by blanking United in the second quarter while Dale Lattanzio and Bruce Barnhill hit charities.

South gained a 6-5 cushion in the third canto, as Art Dunlavy hit a floor shot to offset a single free throw by Paul Thoday.

Todd McLeod finally broke loose in the fourth period, pouring in 6 points to key a 10-5 BU run for the victory.

McLeod grabbed game-high point laurels with his 6, Paul Thoday netted 3 and single buckets were garnered by Gary Forbes, Scott Williams and Rodney Hollenbeck. Glen Acciard and Scott James also starred.

Andover Stars Win Chelmsford Tourney

The Andover Stars Basketball team coached by Frank Monette competed in the Chelmsford Invitational Basketball Tournament recently in the seventh grade division and took the championship, winning all three of their games.

The Andover Stars topped St. Augustine's of Andover in the quarter-finals 74-39 as 9 of the 10 players from the Stars got into the scoring act, with four players hitting double figures. For the Stars, Chris Doherty was high with 20 points pushing 9 fieldgoals through the nets. John Smith followed with 13 points, 5 for 8 from the foul line, Ted Kelley 12 points, 6 for 8 at the foul line, Bob Heidt 10 points, Ken Taylor 6 points, 17 rebounds, Tom Beaumier 5 points, 8 rebounds, Todd Zimmerman 3 points, 5 assists, Ted Liszewski 3 points and 7 rebounds, Eric Fredette 2 points and 7 rebounds, and Mark Haddad with 6 rebounds. St. Augustine's was led by Tom Driscoll 17 points, Phil Farr 8 points and Jack Horan 6 points.

In the semi-finals the Andover Stars dualed St. Michael's of North Andover. North Andover took an early 8 to 2 lead and led 12-8 at the end of the first quarter, but the Andover Stars found the range in the second quarter for a 16-15 halftime edge. The second half was nip and tuck all the way with the Andover Stars holding a 22-19 edge and final tally of 38-34 victory.

Chris Doherty once again led in the scoring column for the Andover Stars with 24 points. John Smith scored 7 points and had eight steals. Ken Taylor tossed in 3 points and had 16 rebounds, Tom Beaumier popped in 2 points with 9 rebounds and Bob Heidt stuffed in 2 points and 6 assists. North Andover was led by Steve Adiconis with 15 points and Brian Seiflin with 13 points.

The finals were almost a carbon-copy of the North Andover game as the Andover Stars won over a tough Chelmsford team 37-33. Chelmsford led after the first quarter 12-8 but the Andover Stars again came back in the second quarter to even the score at 17-17 at the half. Chelmsford took a 28-27 edge after three quarters but the Andover Stars outscored Chelmsford 10-4 in the last quarter for the final 37-33 score and the Championship.

Seven players got into the scoring act for Andover, led by Ted Kelley's 9 point, John Smith had 8 points, Ken Taylor 6, 4-for-5 from the foul line, Bob Heidt 6, Todd Zimmerman 4, Tom Beaumier and Chris Doherty 2 points each. Chelmsford was led by S. McNulty with 12 points.

Andover's Ken Taylor won the Tournament's Most Valuable Player award. The Andover Stars now prepare for the Greater Boston Pre-Teen Tournament in Somerville this weekend.

Bowlathon Termed Success

The Andover Jaycees Bowlathon, held during February vacation at the Andover Lanes, attracted nearly 100 bowlers and has been called an "outstanding success" by Chairman George Vania.

The local youths bowled free in exchange for collecting donations for Lincoln Hill Camp, a summer camp run by Massachusetts for mentally handicapped children.

Vania asked bowlers to turn in their donations at the Jaycee collection table at the Andover Lanes between 9 a.m. and noon on Saturday, or mail them to the Andover Jaycees, P.O. Box 405, Andover, Mass. 01810.

Prize winners will be announced after the collection of donations is complete.

Vania said the Jaycees are particularly grateful to the local Boy Scout groups, Andover schools, and to the manager of Andover Lanes, Harold Johnson, for their support of the Bowlathon.

Intermediates Majors

Last week produced no surprises as all of the front runners continued to win.

Dartmouth - 31 Northeastern - 27

The Huskies led the Green in this game for the first three periods but were unable to hold off the Ivy Leaguers long enough. Northeastern's leads were 7-5, 19-11 and 25-21. Then Dartmouth's defense got hot and Northeastern's shooting went ice cold as Dartmouth outscored the Huskies 10-2 in the final quarter. Chris Doherty and Glen Johnson led the late rally.

Dartmouth: Doherty 22, Glen Johnson 6, Jon Pelletier 2 and Mark Nardone 1.

Northeastern: Ted Liszewski 10, Mike Sherman 6, Steve Smith 5, Frank Beaty 4 and Neil Twomey 2.

Harvard - 36 Boston University - 17

In the division's other Ivy-City game, the Ivy Leaguers again came out on top. B.U. played a fine first-half, trailing only 8-11. Scott Zimmerman then ignited a third period rally with his fine defense which carried the Crimson to their victory.

Harvard: Scott Zimmerman 10, Tom Beaumier 8, Todd Zimmerman 8, James Lebowitz 4, Matt Wells 4 and Brian Moriarty 2.

B.U.: Dave Barker 9, John Merola 4, Andy Emmert 2 and Tom Powers 2.

Boston College - 38 Holy Cross - 18

B.C. jumped out to a 25-13 halftime lead and then coasted as Holy Cross was unable to find the hoop in the second half. B.C. place 7 players in the scoring column in picking up their third victory.

B.C.: Ted Kelley 15, Kevin Canavan 7, Gary Sanderson 7, Brett Pearson 4, Dick Kelley 2, Jerry Weaver 2 and Todd Lockwood 1.

Holy Cross: Chris Bedell 10, John Franco 3, Rob Slayton 2, Jim Terrian 2 and Tim Bolduc 1.

Villanova - 45 N. Carolina State - 21

Villanova, the division's first-half champ, picked up their fourth victory of the second-half in a breeze. The Pennsylvanians raced to a 27-9 halftime lead and then coasted.

Villanova: Mike White 15, Carmen Scarpa 8, John Smith 7, Eric Fredette 5, Mark Haddad 4, Keith Matheson 4 and Chuck Frazzette 2.

Intermediates Minors

Standings remained unchanged in the division as the Cheetas and Panthers continued perfect while the Lions, the division's first-half champions, are only one game off the pace.

Bears - 33 Eagles - 21

Mike McGrath and Mark Easton powered the Bears to their victory. McGrath hit 11 of his game-high 15 points in the second period as the Bears enjoyed a 19-9 halftime advantage. Easton hit 14 points, scoring in every period. The Eagles were never able to get their attack going in the first half but played the Bears even in the last half.

Bears: McGrath 15, Easton 14 and Bernie Kavanagh 4. Ron Hero and John Nardoza played well defensively.

Eagles: Pete Crabtree 9, Rich Sambuco 6, Adam Wise 4 and Bill Di Adamo 2. Eric Swift and John Muldoon played fine defensive games, with Muldoon's his best to date.

Lions - 26 Jaguars - 10

The Jaguars played the first-half champs even for three periods, but a 21 point outburst in the second period was just too much for the Jaguars to handle. Bob Kimmerle and Pete Caplan led the second period rally, scoring 8 and 7 points respectively.

Lions: Kimmerle 8, Caplan 7, Pat Beaudine 4, Art Dunlavy 3, Ken Doherty 2 and Dave Levin 2. Jeff Bruk and Mike Beaudine played fine floor games for the winners.

Jaguars: Dave Checkik 6, Rick Desmaris 2 and Sean Norris 2. Steve Kilmain and John McLellan also played well.

Panthers - 25 Tigers - 8

The division co-leading Panthers continued their winning ways in dropping the Tigers. The high-powered Panthers jumped out to a 10-2 halftime advantage and were never threatened.

Panthers: Scott Gardner 10, Tim Hart 6, Bob Kochakian 3, Paul Marad 2, Rich Morano 2 and Phil Puccia 2. Adam Edelsberg and Andy McKissack led the Panthers defensively.

Tigers: John Kramer 6 and Dan Fleming 2. Adam Reeder was the offensive playmaker while Doug Lindquist and Tom Will played fine defensive games.

Cheetas - 42 Cougars - 20

The co-leading Cheetas got fine offensive efforts from twin brothers Geoff and Chris Reichert to maintain their share of the division lead. The outcome was never in question as the Cheetas jumped out to a 14-8 first period lead and stretched it out from there.

Cheetas: Geoff Reichert 18, Chris Reichert 14, Alex Roberts 6, Adam Roberts 2 and Ken Smith 2.

Cougars: Kevin Wilson 10, Mark Connolly 4, Jay Robbins 4 and John Robbins 2. Chip Dye and Dave Goldberg played fine floor games for the Cougars.

Senior Division

Opening night of the Senior Division's second-half schedule produced a couple of surprises. The Cavaliers, winless in the first half, find themselves on top of the pack. The Jazz also pulled off an upset in dropping the Hawks. The Lakers, the divisions first-half champs, continued in their winning ways.

Jazz - 41 Hawks - 39

The Jazz never trailed in pulling off their upset of the Hawks. After opening up a 8-6 lead after the first period, the Jazz exploded for a 24-14 halftime advantage. The Hawks closed to six points at 26-32 after three periods but were unable to catch the inspired Jazz.

Jazz: Steve Doherty 14, Bob Meier 13, Andy Powell 10 and Rob Wilkins 4.

Hawks: Paul Kelly 19, Kevin Daly 7, Bob Beaudine 6, Mike Terrian 6 and Jon Wilson 1.

Cavaliers - 35 Knicks - 27

The Cavaliers jumped out to an 11-6 lead after one period and then never trailed in picking up their first victory. A 7 point bulge in the third period proved the winning margin. Both teams placed six players in the scoring column.

Cavaliers: Mike Donahue 11, Jim Wetterberg 9, Jamie Coombes 6, Chris Elliot 5, Dave Carignan 2 and Brian Van Aken 2.

Knicks: Bob Heidt 10, Frank Griggs 5, Dave Dehm 4, Jim Hayes 4, Steve Mosher 2 and Mark Pearson 2.

Bantams Have Rough Time

By Rick Harrison

The last two weeks have not been particularly kind to the Andover Bantam A traveling hockey team, as the locals returned from Canada empty-handed and have struggled through three games since that time.

Coach Dick Neal's crew didn't play badly north of the border, staying right with the opposition in four of the five games, but the rivals from Toronto and Oshawa were just a shade stronger.

The trip, which reaped large dividends for the kids during off-the-ice activities, opened with a 4-3 loss to North Toronto and continued with successive setbacks to the York Toros (6-4), the powerful Oshawa Lions Minor Bantam All-Stars (9-1), the Oshawa Polaris (6-3) and the Oshawa Marano's (5-3).

However, while in Canada the group had a number of enjoyable experiences including tours of Niagara Falls, the Hockey Hall of Fame, the Ontario Science Center and the General Motors plant. There was also the opportunity of viewing a Montreal Canadiens vs. Toronto Maple Leafs NHL game in person.

Bad weather turned the bus ride home into a 15-hour ordeal, but all-in-all the good outweighed the not-so-good.

Since their arrival the Andover sextet has bowed to Portsmouth, N.H. (5-2), exploded for an 8-4 victory over Concord, N.H. behind Paul Farnham's four goals, and dropped another tough 4-3 decision to Brunswick, Me.

All this activity left Neal's aggregation with a somewhat deceptive 7-15-2 record, as 11 of those defeats have been by one, two or three goals.

North Toronto, 4-3

Andover launched its week-long Canadian junket with a 4-3 loss to North Toronto at the Memorial Arena, as Ken Southworth, Len Driscoll and John Sagaser netted the locals' goals.

"They were a small but quick team," noted Neal. "We should have won, but first-game jitters and apprehensiveness hurt our play."

Southworth opened the scoring at 3:08 of the first period, with an assist to linemate Steve Morin, but 52 seconds later North Toronto tied it 1-1.

The host squad jumped ahead for good a scant three seconds into the middle session, and that's how it stayed until 10:47 of the third frame when Toronto collected its third marker.

Len Driscoll closed the gap to 3-2 at 13:05, assists to Joe Cammarata and 13-year-old defenseman Jim Higgins, but North Toronto retaliated at 18:09 with the eventual game-winning powerplay score.

John Sagaser wrapped up the Andover attack with 45 seconds to go. Mike Anderson and Steve Morin posted the set-ups.

Todd Bateson went the distance in the Andover net, and the game consisted of two 15-minute periods and a 20-minute finale.

York Toros, 6-4

Steve Morin erupted for a three-goal "hat trick" in the second contest, but it fell short as the York Toros of the Metropolitan Toronto Hockey League prevailed 6-4 at the Forest Hills Arena.

"We were somewhat better in this game, but it still was not a top performance," admitted Neal. "This was a much larger, more physical team comprised of all 14-year-old Major Bantams."

York, which picked up the only five penalties in the contest, raced to a quick 2-0 advantage in the opening 1:46.

Steve Moring cut the deficit in half at 3:22, pocketing his first red-lighter of the game from Dean Robinson.

Len Driscoll took a feed from center Paul Farnham and tied the game 2-2 with a powerplay at 4:35 of the middle canto, and then 14-year-old center Morin boosted Andover ahead 3-2 at 8:04 with John Sagaser assisting.

The lead was short-lived, however, as York scored three times in 75 seconds between 8:54 and 10:09.

The host Toros lifted their cushion to 6-3 early in the final period, and the lone answering fire for Andover was Steve Morin's third tally of the contest at 10:17 after feeds from Sagaser and Mike Anderson.

Todd Bateson toiled the opening 15-minute stanza in goal, and Dave Cullinan handled the last two periods.

Oshawa Lions, 9-1

Andover had its ears pinned back by its first Oshawa opponent, as the Lions Minor Bantam All-Stars rolled to a 9-1 victory at Children's Arena.

"This was an All-Star team of 13-year-old boys, the largest group of 13's I've ever seen," observed Neal. "They were extremely physical and simply overpowered us completely."

"We did have about four good scoring chances, however, which should have resulted in goals and made the final score more respectable."

A good indication of the Lions' prowess was their overall record of 41-7-3 entering the Andover game. They had won two Ontario Invitational Tournaments and outscored the opposition 290-96 in their 51 games.

"One thing we managed to do was contain their two top scorers," noted Neal. "They had 32 and 45 goals respectively entering the game, but got only two points (one goal and one assist) against us."

The Lions grabbed a 2-0 first period edge, connecting twice over the initial 2:07 of action. They increased the lead to 6-0 late in the middle frame, but Joe Cammarata's 11th seasonal goal at 10:46 ruined the shutout. Wayne Merola handed out the lone assist.

The Lions potted a shorthanded lampighter two minutes later, then added two final stanza scores.

Dave Cullinan tended net for the first two periods, while Todd Bateson took the third 15-minute, stop-time session.

Polaris, 6-3

Neal had juggled his lines for the previous game, and he stuck with the same combinations during the 6-3 loss to Oshawa Polaris at Donevan Arena.

The new lines featured Morin centering for Driscoll and Anderson, Farnham between Southworth and Sagaser, and Bruce Belbin switching off with Joe Cahill between Cammarata and Merola.

"This team was in first place in Oshawa Major Bantam League. They were all 14-year-

Morin came through on the powerplay again at 0:14 of the third frame, converting after a Jim Higgins' feed, but Polaris struck twice more before Farnham stuffed in an unassisted red lighter at 7:40 to wrap things up.

Todd Bateson was in net for the opening 10-minute, stop-time period, while Dave Cullinan worked the final two sessions.

Marano's, 5-3

Once again Neal shuffled his personnel for this final game. Morin wound up centering for Sagaser and Driscoll, Farnham was inserted between Cammarata and Merola, while Belbin and Cahill alternated with Anderson and Southworth on the wings.

"This club was second in the Major Bantam League behind Polaris, but appeared stronger than the leaders," commented Neal.

"This was definitely our best game. We gave it a good, solid all out effort. Dave Cullinan was outstanding in goal. There were a lot of shots taken against him, but he made many fine saves and kept us in the running," lauded Neal.

Marano found some breathing room with an insurance goal at 11:31, then skated off its fifth shorthanded situation in the final moments to preserve the triumph at the Harmon Park arena.

Trip Home

The Andover entourage was scheduled to leave Oshawa around noontime Saturday morning, with arrival by 10 p.m. in Andover.

No such luck!

"Due to snow and treacherous driving conditions across Canada we did not arrive home until 2:45 a.m. on Sunday morning after leaving Oshawa on time at 12 noon," reported Neal.

"Our bus was driven into the median to avoid an accident scene (several cars including one overturned on its roof), and we were stuck there 1½ hours until pulled out. Fortunately there were no injuries!" added the coach.

Top Performers

Neal pointed to Steve Morin and goalie Dave Cullinan as the best players over the 7-day haul.

Morin led all scorers in the five Canadian games with five goals and seven points. Both Len Driscoll and Paul Farnham added three red-lighters and five points

John Sagaser collected one goal and three assists, Joe Cammarata a goal and two helpers, Ken Southworth one goal, Mike Anderson and Jim Higgins two assists apiece, Dean Robinson one assist and Wayne Merola one.

Medals

Andover Bicentennial medals were presented by the Andover players to both Toronto and Oshawa city officials, as well as to patients at the Bloorview Children's Hospital which is visited annually by the local group.

Home Sweet Home?

Two days after their arrival home, Andover hosted Portsmouth, N.H. at Merrimack College and dropped a 5-2 decision to a club they had tied 3-3 back in late January.

Len Driscoll got the locals started on the right skate, touching twice 12 seconds into the game with assists to new linemates Steve Morin and John Sagaser.

"He circled the net and put in a backhand from close range," recalled Neal.

Portsmouth pulled even 1-1 at 8:18, and tacked on a brace of second stanza goals for a 3-1 edge.

The difference jumped to 5-1 late in the game, before Wayne Merola punched home the five-foot rebound of a Joe Cahill shot.

Dave Cullinan was in the cage for two periods and Todd Bateson handled the third.

Andover Wins, 8-4

Andover finally got back on the right side of the ledger at Concord, N.H. last weekend, drilling the host squad 8-4 as Paul Farnham went wild with four goals and three assists.

"In addition to Paul we also had excellent games from Wayne Merola, John Sagaser and Len Driscoll," noted Neal.

Concord pushed ahead 1-0 at 6:41 of the opening period, when a 15-foot shot eluded complete-game goaltender Todd Bateson.

After the New Hampshire sextet upped the score to 2-0 at 3:03 of the middle frame, Wayne Merola took a Farnham feed and snapped home an eight-footer from the right side.

Joe Cahill's second goal of the season tied it 2-2 at 9:32, as he deflected home a shot from five feet with set-ups to Ken Southworth and Mike Anderson.

Farnham took personal command of the situation at 11:40, pulling the goalie and flipping the puck high over his shoulder. Cammarata notched the only assist.

It was Farnham again at 13:07 with a 15-foot slapshot, as Cammarata and Dean Robinson were the helpmates.

Len Driscoll boosted the score to 5-2 at 14:26, jamming home a short rebound during an Andover powerplay. Farnham and Morin picked up assists.

Farnham's third lamplighter of the game at 7:53 of the final period occurred when he once again pulled the goalie with a fake, and deposited the disc high into the left corner. Cammarata picked up his third assist.

The "Farnham Follies" ended 31 seconds later with score No. 4, an unassisted effort that started from his own blueline. He carried into the Concord zone, decked the goaltender and slid the puck home.

The Granite State crew struggled back to 7-4 with rapid-fire scores 24 seconds apart during the ninth minute, but Wayne Merola jammed in a close-up shot at 10:57. Farnham set up Merola's 13th seasonal tally.

Brunswick, 4-3

In almost an instant replay of their first 4-3 encounter, Andover dropped another game by the exact score to Brunswick, Me. last weekend at Bowdoin College.

Both clubs skated off some early penalties, and then Len Driscoll pumped in his 20th goal from John Sagaser with 11 seconds left in the first period.

After pulling even early in the middle session, Brunswick took a 3-1 edge with goals 10 seconds apart midway through the stanza. On both scores Brunswick players were left unguarded at the left corner of the cage.

Andover closed to 3-2 on John Sagaser's 10th red-lighter at 10:03, a powerplay deflection of Paul Farnham's 20-foot shot.

A mere 25 seconds thereafter Farnham canned his 20th goal unassisted.

"He carried the puck from our zone around their defense, pulled the goalie, and slid the puck into the opposite corner," explained Neal.

The Pine Tree Staters delivered what proved to be the winning goal at 1:34 of an otherwise scoreless third period.

Andover goalie Dave Cullinan was lifted with 30 seconds left, but the locals were unable to pocket the equalizer.

Schedule

Originally an Oshawa Bantam team was scheduled to return Andover's visit for three games this weekend, but due to other travel commitments the Canadians are unable to come.

Thus, Andover's revised agenda has the team battling Dover, N.H. tonight in Rochester, N.H. at 8:30 p.m., and trekking to the University of New Hampshire for an 11:45 a.m. clash Saturday against the Durham, N.H. Bantams whom Andover slugged 9-4 in the seasonal opener on Dec. 29.

Course For Parents Offered At Church

THE TOWNSMAN, MARCH 4, 1976

The Educational Task Force of the Ballard Vale United Church has made plans to meet a goal of providing continuing education and inspirational experiences for persons of all ages. Chairman, Richard Darling, led a lengthy meeting last week resulting in several specific programs.

A Family Enrichment Workshop Series will be held at the church beginning on Monday, April 19. The series will be eight weeks long and will follow a similar format to the nationally known courses on Parent Effectiveness Training. Listening for feelings, appreciation of anger, and enabling children to help solve their own problems are some of the parenting skills that will be taught. The course is open to friends of the community as well as church members.

Another program highlighted by this Task Force is the Lenten Bible Study on four Monday evenings beginning on March 15. It will be led by the pastor, Rev. David Hollenbeck. It will be held at the parsonage, 20 Hall Ave., on each of those Mondays from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

Families of the Ballard Vale Church will be invited to a Family Camping Weekend, June 11-13 at Camp Aldersgate in Rhode Island. Cabins will be available as well as a large dining hall and kitchen facilities. The committee will be planning for an informal weekend which will include swimming, boating, singing, crafts, and fireside discussions. Church school superintendent, Mrs. Hannah Darling, will assume major responsibility for following up on these plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stephens and Rev. Hollenbeck will be coordinating a Pot Luck Supper for all the youth of the Ballard Vale Church in order to present to them a program about the summer camping and conferencing programs available. Some of the weeks open to them include Back Packing in the White Mountains, Canoeing in Maine, Bicycling on Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, Camping in Rhode Island, and a Creative Arts week of music, art, sculpture, and drama at the Rolling Ridge Conference Center in North Andover. Other members of this Task Force who will help implement these programs are Rosemary, Hempstead, Lorna McIntyre, Cheryl Campbell, and Diane Ely. Inquiries about the details of the programs may be obtained by telephoning the church office at 23 Clark Road.

Scattering Raindrops Effectively

A North Andover engineer this week is going through the pangs which generally are reserved for those about to make their stage debut.

In a sense, Richard L. Schapker, of 134 Farnum St., is making his debut, but it is at the Home Show in Boston, and with a device which has been five years in planning and development.

The device, patented last week by the U.S. Patent Office, is a rain disperser and is aimed at carrying rain from roof tops and dispersing it gently over a wide area of lawn or ground, and eliminating trenching.

The device replaces gutters along roof edges, is easily installed, and eliminates the problem of clogged drainpipes from leaves and other materials, which usually present problems to gutters.

Made of aluminum, "Deflect-A-Way", the rain disperser, will be introduced at the Home Show in Hynes Auditorium, Boston, beginning Saturday and running through the following weekend.

An aeronautical and mechanical engineer, Schapker got the idea after moving to North Andover from Peabody about five years ago.

At his Peabody residence, gutters carried runoff water from around the house, but at his new home in North Andover, with no gutters, the borders around the home were soon trenched.

Schapker felt there had to be a better way and began developing a plan to relieve the problem.

Initially, small fingers of aluminum were built, which worked to a degree breaking up the rainwater, but not sufficiently enough to do the job.

He then worked on a louvered length of aluminum which was a step closer to what he had hoped to accomplish.

Further refinement resulted in the current model, now in production by S2 Corporation in North Andover and due for marketing in the very near future.

The device consists of a series of thin, parallel aluminum slats, about three inches in width and resembling a half-closed venetian blind.

When the water falls in a sheet from the roof, it is dispersed through the slats, breaking into small drops and falling gently over a wide area.

The system eliminates use of down spouts, and gutters, or collection points which can become clogged.

Trenching from rain falling from the roof edge is eliminated as splash back onto foundations.

Each section of the rain disperser is five feet long and is held by three brackets. The sections are butted along the roof edge, and can easily be cut with a hack saw or metal shears.

The system has been tested for over a year and a half and worked effectively with no problems created by icing conditions.

Various materials were tested before the final aluminum model was decided upon. Balsa, plastic and basswood were used in trial tests, but aluminum showed the strength and durability to perform the task most efficiently.

Deflect-A-Way is designed to price competitively with average do-it-yourself gutters and will go on public view for the first time this weekend in Boston.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

After Shorr's Leak

by Jack Anderson
with Joe Spear

WASHINGTON — The day after the great leak of the House Intelligence Committee report to the Village Voice, the Committee's offices were invaded by faceless men from the Central Intelligence Agency, the Defense Intelligence Agency and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

They came to reclaim the secret documents, which their agencies had loaned to the Committee. But the Committee had some secrets of its own, which the members didn't want to fall into CIA or FBI hands. So staff members carefully inspected the files before returning the secret documents.

By one count, the staff removed and shredded enough documents to fill ten sacks. Not until then were the secret documents given back.

Meanwhile, the Justice Department has quietly started its own investigation of Daniel Schorr, the CBS correspondent who was responsible for the leak.

Attorney General Edward Levi has also assigned two FBI agents to help the House Ethics Committee with its investigation of the Village Voice leak. The preliminary findings indicate that it will be a hectic investigation. Copies of the secret documents were leaking all over town.

The Government Printing Office printed 2,293 copies. The Central Intelligence Agency made additional copies and passed them around. Vice President Nelson Rockefeller had access to a copy, for example. And his son-in-law, Thomas Morgan, happens to be editor of the Village Voice.

Of course, no one has suggested that Rockefeller leaked the report to his son-in-law. But this illustrates how tangled the investigation is likely to get.

BLUNDER IN AFRICA — Sixteen months ago, we reported that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger had established a secret relationship with South Africa. This policy led eventually to undercover cooperation with South Africa in Angola.

The truth has now leaked out, causing double embarrassment for the United States. We not only wound up on the losing side but were caught in a secret alliance with the hated South Africans.

Quite understandably, the blacks not only in Africa, but in America, have been antagonized by Kissinger's policy. They have reacted by embracing the victorious MPLA, the faction which the Soviets and Cubans supported in Angola.

Several U.S. organizations, most of them black, were invited to send representatives to Cuba recently to get better acquainted with the MPLA. Some of the most prominent blacks in America, including Congressmen and newsmen, received invitations.

Perhaps it's a good idea for the United States belatedly to establish good relations with the MPLA. But those who went to Cuba are entitled to know who is behind the invitations.

Intelligence sources told us that the key organizer is Julian Torres Rizo, who is accredited as the first secretary of the Cuban mission at the United Nations.

But our sources have identified him as a secret Cuban intelligence agent. He has been under observation by U.S. intelligence both in this country and inside Cuba.

Rizo's secret mission at the United Nations is to develop contacts with radicals in this country. He is not a diplomat as he pretends to be, but is an intelligence agent. And Cuban intelligence works closely with Soviet intelligence.

THE PARTY'S OVER — Last fall we reported that the Northrop Corporation had arranged goose hunts on the Maryland shores and ski trips in the Colorado mountains for Pentagon officials.

A few days ago, the Pentagon brass were back on the ski slopes. But our stories have spoiled some of their fun. First, Northrop passed the word to its executives to stay home this year. There are no corporate bigwigs, therefore, to pick up the bar tabs.

The military brass also liked to gather at the Aspen Alps Club after dark. They always reserved an elegant apartment known as "the passion pit." It contained a huge, sunken slate bathtub large enough for several people to take a hot bath at the same time. Now the passion pit has been closed down.

The annual ski holiday simply isn't the same this year.

PRINCELY PICKLE — The American Embassy in the Netherlands is just as embarrassed as Prince Bernhard over the news that he pocketed over $1 million in bribes from the Lockheed Corporation. The embassy had invited the Prince to represent the Royal Family at its Bicentennial festivities on July 4. Now the embassy doesn't know how to back out. A State Department official admitted to us that so far, at least, the Prince "has not been disinvited."

BIG OIL AND BIG JOHN — The Big Oil companies are not happy with the crop of presidential hopefuls. Virtually every Democratic candidate is talking about breaking up the oil firms.

Republicans Gerald Ford and Ronald Reagan are more friendly toward the oil men. But the tycoons who run the energy trust would prefer one of their own in the White House. The man they really want is former Treasury Secretary John Connally.

Connally suddenly launched a last-minute write-in campaign in the New Hampshire primary. Washington insiders suspect that oil money was behind the 11th-hour attempt.

Connally is a former Texas governor. He knows the oil industry, and is at home with its top executives. He has the strong backing of his pals in the petroleum capitals of Houston and Tulsa. This may make Connally a strong force in the 1976 presidential sweepstakes.

NAILING NUMBER TWO — A federal grand jury is secretly investigating Avis, the nation's second-largest car rental firm. The grand jury is trying to determine whether Avis tried too hard.

Evidence has been presented to the grand jury that Avis customers were cheated in Florida. Sources close to the investigation tell us similar charges have also been made against the company in other states.

An Avis spokesman acknowledged that some employees have been caught cheating customers but that they acted on their own. What they did, he said, was contrary to company policy. Meanwhile, the company has been quietly mailing refunds to customers who were bilked.

75 Years Ago - March, 1901

It was a fine spring day on Monday for the annual town meeting, with only a few voters on hand when the polls opened at 8 a.m. By 1 p.m., there were sufficient voters on hand to allow the voting for town officials to go until 1:30 p.m. With the election over, and while the ballots were being counted, the remainder of the business was transacted, with the town approving the budget of $116,506, appointment of a finance committee, town house improvement committee, and Punchard School conference committee approved.

A.P. Burnham, superintendent of the town farm in North Andover, and brother of Supt. George L. Burnham of the Alms House in Andover, has resigned his position effective April 1.

The residence of John L. Smith on High St. is being piped for 38 gas lights and the house of Lewis T. Hardy on Maple Avenue, for 31 gas lights by George Saunders. Selectman Boutwell and James Grosvenor have been drawn to serve as jurors at the Best Murder trial in Superior Court in Lawrence.

Nathaniel H. Pride, Jr., of Andover, has written the music for the Hasty Pudding Theatricals production to be given at Harvard. He is considered the most talented musician at the university.

50 Years Ago - March, 1926

The cost of snow removal through March 1 of this year is $22,621.21, according to a report from Phillip L. Hardy, chairman of the Board of Public Works.

An enthusiastic gathering of 40 men from all walks of life was present at the opening of new clubrooms of the Rod and Gun Club at the Old Engine House on Andover St., Ballardvale Monday night.

A woefully small turnout was on hand for the fine musical presentation of the Harvard Glee Club in the chapel at Phillips Academy Sunday night. A few years ago after the club's triumphant appearances in France, one could not gain admission to their local concert.

Charles Buchan, former fire chief, has explained that his request for a new piece of apparatus appearing in the town warrant is misunderstood. It is not just a pumper, but a triple combination of hose, chemical and pump.

George A. Higgins was a close victor in the race for town clerk in Monday's annual town election, defeating Thaxter Eaton, 1,200 to 1,140. Frank H. Hardy was elected to serve a second term as selectman.

25 Years Ago - March, 1951

Voters grant permanent tenure to the town clerk in annual election which also sees election of Gordon L. Coquhoun to school committee, P. Elroy Wilson and Victor J. Mill, Jr. to board of public works and Franklin Haggerty to housing authority.

Punchard High defeats Hanover 60-53 in opening round of Tech basketball tourney at Boston Garden.

The selectmen Monday night voted to purchase 31 meters to be installed on both sides of Punchard Avenue.

Hundreds pay final tribute to the late Rev. Matthew F. MacDonald, O.S.A., pastor of St. Augustine's church who died March 1.

The Andover Taxpayers Association has voted to endorse the salary increases for town employees. The total pay hikes will cost in the vicinity of $20,000 and represent a $1 increase in the tax rate.

Records

Refused

A request from Andover Liquors, Inc., to designate Irving Winn, Jr., of 1 Sunset Rock Road, general manager, was laid over by the selectmen because a new state law keeps them from records which would tell if the candidate has a criminal record. The reference is a technicality required in liquor operations here.

Selectman Edmund J. Sullivan suggested the delay might put the owners in a bind. Chairman Greenberg, however, replied that the owners might in turn bring pressure on their state reps to change the law.

The Town Manager will also write the Attorney General explaining the dilemma.

Entertaining

Business

The Selectmen have given permission to the Andover Police Relief Association to hold a Sunday afternoon concert on May 2 at East Jr. High, and extended liquor hours to 2 a.m. on April 10 for a special non-public function at the Sheraton Rolling Green. Liquor curfew is usually 1 a.m.

Permission was also given to the Easter Seal Society to hold its annual Coffee Day for crippled children March 1 through 12.

Meetings And

More Meetings

Selectman Edmund J. Sullivan and other representatives to Northeast Solid Waste Committee -- formerly known as the Greater Lawrence Solid Waste Committee -- were to meet with Governor Michael Dukakis last night. The Committee itself will meet again March 18.

The Merrimack Valley Planning Commission will also meet on March 18, and Selectman Janet Lake is the first of the town representatives to opt for the Third Annual Massachusetts Cherry Sheet Conference at the Boston Harbor Campus, March 24.

Meanwhile, the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce Legislative and Businessmen's Caucus meets at 8 a.m. March 10 at the Sheraton Rolling Green.

Traditional

agreed to one traditional classroom each for kindergarten and grades two, three, five and six, and two classrooms each for grades one and four.

The committee also established maximum class sizes and decided that youngsters could still be enrolled where those maximums haven't been reached.

Associate Superintendent Harry Westcott reported Monday night on the youngsters who are currently "enrolled" in traditional classes. They were counted on the recent survey as interested in the traditional classes anywhere in the system, or specifically at West.

Those enrollments, and the newly established maximum class sizes include: Kindergarten - 19 enrolled, 18 to 22 maximum; Grade 1 - 28 enrolled, 18 to 25 maximum; Grade 2 - 28 enrolled, 20 to 26 maximum; Grade 3 - 31 enrolled, 20 to 26 maximum; Grade 4 - 44 enrolled, 22 to 28 maximum; Grade 5 - 35 enrolled, 25 to 30 maximum and Grade 6 - 30 enrolled, 25 to 30 maximum.

In classes where enrollment already exceeds the maximums, efforts will now be made to determine whether West parents who wanted the traditional program only if it were held at West, still feel they want traditional.

There has been the feeling on the part of the administration that some West parents played it "safe", enrolling their youngsters in traditional at West to ensure that they wouldn't be bused to other schools.

If classes are still too large after that screening process, pupils will be drawn by lot, and waiting lists established.

The administration and committee also agreed that pupils who are "misplaced" in traditional, in the opinion of both parents and school authorities, may be withdrawn.

By July 30, West Elementary Principal Eugene Frulla has indicated that he will have met with the parents of traditional-bound youngsters - some 175 families all told - to go over their children's school achievement to date and goals for the future.

While none of the regular West pupils will be displaced, the establishment of 10 traditional classes would require the possible relocation of four special needs classes. Those classes would be moved to other elementary schools, in suitable spaces with minimal disruption.

According to Westcott's report, an additional four teachers would be needed for 10 classes, though Committeeman George Olesen said that his "kitchen table" figuring of population shifts between classes turned up a possible 11 available teachers.

The report also noted that only three teachers currently in the system have indicated an interest in switching into the traditional program. The administration has said all along that it would seek volunteers for the traditional rooms.

Following the March 16 school committee meeting, a traditional Andover Program Advisory Committee, made of parents of children enrolled in the traditional program, will be organized.

Candidates Coffee Saturday

The informal "coffee with the candidates" sponsored by the Andover League of Women Voters will be held on Saturday, March 6, at 9:30 a.m. at the Andover Savings Bank Lobby.

Invited are candidates for all town officers, Selectmen, School Committee, Trustees to the Vocational School, Town Moderator and Housing Authority.

The public is invited to attend and will have the opportunity to meet and question the candidates individually and informally.

through the Dutch Elm disease. Mrs. Phair discussed briefly the necessity to remove and destroy diseased Elms in order to prevent spread of the infection to other Elms, thus reducing losses.

The local project will be headed by Mrs. Patricia Edmonds of the garden club conservation committee.

The project will involve transplanting Elms from woodland areas to Elm Street.

Tree Supt. Bamford explains that the Elms are not readily available from commercial nurseries.

Obtaining of the Elm for replanting is accomplished by taking them from woodland areas, which becomes an expensive proposition, in light of use of local labor, rather than the simple planting of a tree obtained from a nursery.

"Having their enthusiasm behind such a project, the effort is made that much easier," Bamford explained.

There will probably be two plantings this year, with further actions in abeyance until after the road reconstruction.

The state is to rebuild Elm St. from Washington Ave. to Wilson's Corner after which it will be turned over to the town for maintenance.

Bamford says that there has been no loss of Elms to the disease in the past three years, but many were lost in prior years.

Elms at one time formed an almost perfect arched entrance to the town before the infestation of the Dutch Elm beetle which has claimed hundreds of trees in the community over the past decade.

Some Spring/Winter Thoughts

Just as we prepare to dust off the rakes and yard-cleaning equipment, the philosophical view of New England weather (if you don't like it, wait a minute) takes our spring-like setting into winter.

Not too many days ago, residents and town officials alike were thinking spring with February out of the way, when suddenly the snow budget is shot, the snow blowers are out again and the threat of back strain is again on the horizon.

But, under such circumstances, some pleasant thoughts come our way, money saving, quite possibly, from of all places the school committee which has scrapped its idea of portable classrooms.

Last week the committee voted to withdraw its proposal to provide portable classrooms as a relief to classroom overcrowding. The matter was scheduled for town meeting consideration.

Known more familiarly in other communities as portables, Andover chooses to refer to them as relocatable classrooms. By either name, the definition seems to be a misnomer.

Once in place, the "temporary" educational shelters somehow take on permanence once purchased.

Our view of the proposal from the beginning has been one of doubt as to their worth, in terms of money involved for a short term problem.

The student population would appear to be leveling off for a time, thus the town may well make do with alternate grade structuring, or using some additional spaces available, rather than going to the proposed expense of $450,000 for the relocatable classrooms.

The school board will be looking at some alternatives in the ensuing weeks to come with a solution to what would appear to be a temporary population problem at the secondary level.

We feel, however, that the decision to drop plans for the purchase of relocatables is a wise one from an economic standpoint.

The Warriors

While on the subject of good news, we should mention the efforts of some of our high school athletes who have given exemplary performances in seasons either just ended or about to end.

The Andover High basketball team was eliminated last week from post season tournament competition after a valiant effort against an always powerful Somerville opponent.

But, for the Warrior hoopsters, they had again gained a tournament bid as a result of a fine season in Merrimack Valley Conference competition.

For Coach Wilbur Hixon, post season competition has been an almost annual event since taking over the reins of Andover High basketball.

While the season ended abruptly last week, we feel the team is worthy of congratulations for their fine effort and a 63-60 loss in tourney play is nothing to be ashamed of.

The high school gymnasts have also done exceptionally well again this season, a number of the team members having gained individual honors in the recent North Shore Gymnastics League Individual competitions.

The efforts of both teams indicate a well-rounded sports program at Andover High.

Particular mention is made in view of the Golden Warriors football team and its accomplishments of recent years.

In light of the notoriety of state titles, one tends to neglect other accomplishments by our hard working athletes, but, fortunately, their efforts have been able to command proper attention.

Our Elms

Finally, we are pleased to note that the Andover Garden Club is assuming a project of particular note.

The conservation committee of the organization is undertaking to replace Elms which have been destroyed through disease over the years along the namesake thoroughfare - Elm Street.

Elm Street is soon to undergo a complete rebuilding and is a main thoroughfare into town.

Over the years many of the Elms which lined the street had to be removed due to the Dutch Elm disease which has claimed hundreds of the stately trees in the community.

Now, a program is being launched by the gardeners to restore losses through an annual program.

Such an effort will have a lasting effect on the community.

New England's changeable weather was never more so than this week. At left, Sandy Waldie of Public Works sheds his coat for some sweepings at right, teacher Kathy Remmes brushes snow off her car Tuesday afternoon before leaving West Elementary School.

Friday Feature

B. Custer, I Remember David and Lisa, and C. Beloved Country. The program for the season is available at the library. Remember, children must be accompanied by a parent.

Last year due to the popularity of this program, it was necessary to turn people away on several occasions when the library was filled beyond capacity. In an effort to meet this demand, the library has decided to have an additional showing of any film which there are more than 100 people. The second showing would be on the next day, at 1 p.m.

Educational Exhibits Part Of Flower Show

Learn how to landscape your backyard, dye wool with herbs or care for your houseplants -- all at the N.E. Spring Garden & Flower Show, March 13-21, at Boston's Commonwealth Armory.

Sponsored by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, the Flower Show will have a wide range of educational exhibits, including gardens from colonial 1676 to a futuristic 2076!

For example, the New England chapter of the Herb Society of America will show how dyes can be obtained from plants so common we call them "weeds", and a simple and safe process for coloring wool with these dyes.

Also the non-profit Habitat Institute for the Environment will have a special exhibit entitled "City Gardening on a Shoestring" while the Margaret Ferguson Greenhouses at Wellesley College will show "Medicinal Plants and Their Uses."

The entire Indoor Plant Center at the Flower Show will be tremendously educational, with ten different exhibits showing how to care properly for houseplants.

Actually, every exhibit at the Flower Show is educational. The knowledgeable visitor can look at a beautiful Springtime garden and see how the exhibitor has mixed different plant species and colors -- and try the same at home.

All plant material at the Flower Show is labeled with both its Latin and common names. If any visitor sees a color or shape they like, all they need to do is write down the name and their local nursery should be able to find the plants.

Also, the Massachusetts Horticultural Society's Information Booth at the show will be staffed with experts throughout show hours, to answer any questions on all horticultural topics. Anyone who comes to the Flower Show is invited to bring with them questions or gardening problems for free assistance from the experts.

Flower Show hours are: Saturday, March 13 - noon to 10 p.m.; Sundays, March 14 and 21 - 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Monday, March 15 through Saturday, March 20 - 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The show is easily reached via the MBTA Green Line and a special free shuttle bus will run from the Boston Common Underground Garage after 6 p.m. on weekdays and all day on the weekends.

In its 105th year, the Flower Show benefits the many educational and civic programs of the non-profit Horticultural Society.

This year, over a half-million people will lease their new cars.

Yes No

1. ☐ ☐ You're in the market for a new car about every two years.
2. ☐ ☐ You usually put over 12,000 miles on your car each year.
3. ☐ ☐ You're a two-car family or would like to become one.
4. ☐ ☐ You'd rather put your money to work than spend it on a down payment.
5. ☐ ☐ You use your car for business and must keep accurate records on it for tax purposes.
6. ☐ ☐ You'd like to try a different kind of car this year, but don't want to buy one you might not be happy with.
7. ☐ ☐ You hate the hassle and haggle of trade-in time.
8. ☐ ☐ You need a car, but not the responsibilities of ownership: arranging insurance, licensing, periodic maintenance and ultimate disposal.

Leasing makes sense for doctors.

Dependable, late-model transportation—without wasting time on deals, trade-ins, and maintenance. That's why so many professional people lease their cars.

And salesmen.

Salesmen—and many other businessmen—drive their cars long and hard. They rack up a lot of mileage, and trade-in more often. And they must also keep accurate records for tax purposes.

All excellent reasons to lease.

Doesn't leasing make sense for you?

Talk it over with a professional:

Your local member of Chrysler Leasing System. Or most any Chrysler-Plymouth or Dodge dealer.

No matter what make of car you want - Chrysler product or not - give him a call. He can tell you if leasing is right for you. If it is, he's an expert at making leasing easy. If it isn't he'll be just as happy to sell you a car.

One way or the other he wants you for a customer.

Girls' Hoop Playoff Results

The end of the season is near as the semi-final games of the R.C.S. Girls Basketball League were played this past Saturday at Bancroft School.

The top four teams of the eight-team league entered the playoffs.

With the regular season play over, the West Elementary Warriors finished first, Sanborn Superstars second, Bancroft 1 third and a tie for fourth between St. Mary's and the Supersonic Sanborn Shooters.

The battle was won by St. Mary's by a score of 13-8. St. Mary's was in complete control throughout the game with their zone defense working well and their offense continually penetrating the hoop. High scorers for St. Mary's were Kathy Basile with 6 points and Jeanne O'Meara with 4 points. Tossing in 6 points for the Shooters was Lisa Alexander with Jessica Balboni scoring the other 2 points.

The semi-final game between Bancroft 1 and the Sanborn Superstars saw the Superstars jump by for a close 22-20 victory. Leading the Superstars into the final were Debbie Lasota scoring 4 points and Mary Beth Hayes scoring 6 points. The Bancroft 1 team put together a balanced attack as Adrienne Fisk, Barbara Cullinan, Laurie Southworth, Kathy Kinsella and Amy Conroy all scored points but just fell short of winning.

The second semi-final match between the West Elementary Warriors and St. Mary's found the Warriors on top 15-13 after playing in overtime.

Heather Thompson scored the winning basket and got help from Beth Luciano who scored 6 points and Betsy Goodman who scored 4 points. St. Mary's got an 8 point performance from Kathy Basile and 1 point from Jeanne O'Meara.

This Saturday the finals will be played at 10:30 a.m. at the Bancroft gymnasium with the West Elementary Warriors facing the Sanborn Superstars. All spectators welcome.
